

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS

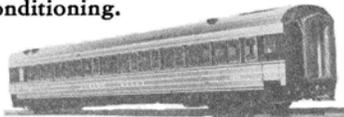

NEW DELUXE COACHES

now in regular daily service between

NEW YORK
(PENNSYLVANIA STATION)
AND ITHACA

A PLEASANT JOURNEY!

Designed especially for your comfort and convenience, these splendid new cars will add much to the enjoyment of your trip. A few of the many innovations are: sponge rubber seats; fluorescent lighting; cushioned floors for quiet, restful travel; and sealed windows for perfect air-conditioning.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

IF YOU MOVE

Please notify the ALUMNI NEWS
of your
New Address Promptly

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY OF CORNELL ALUMNI

ITHACA

LANG'S GARAGE

GREEN STREET NEAR TIOGA
Ithaca's Oldest, Largest, and Best

Storage, Washing, Lubrication, Expert Repairs
ERNEST D. BUTTON '99 JOHN L. BUTTON '25

BALTIMORE, MD.

WHITMAN, REQUARDT & SMITH

Water Supply, Sewerage, Structural,
Valuations of Public Utilities, Reports,
Plans, and General Consulting Practice.

EZRA B. WHITMAN, C.E. '01
G. J. REQUARDT, C.E. '09
B. L. SMITH, C.E. '14
West Biddle Street at Charles

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THEODORE K. BRYANT

LL.B. '97—LL.M. '98
Master Patent Law, G. W. U. '08

Patents and Trade Marks Exclusively
309-314 Victor Building

KENOSHA, WIS.

MACWHYTE COMPANY

Manufacturers of Wire and Wire Rope, Braided Wire Rope Sling, Aircraft Tie Rods, Strand and Cord.
Literature furnished on request

JESSEL S. WHYTE, M.E. '13 PRES. & GEN. MGR.
R. B. WHYTE, M.E. '13, GEN. SUPT.

NEW YORK AND VICINITY

REA RETA*—Folded and interfolded facial tissues for the retail trade.

S'WIPE'S*—A soft, absorbent, disposable tissue, packed flat, folded and interfolded, in bulk or boxes, for hospital use.

FIBREDOWN*—Absorbent and non-absorbent cellulose wadding, for hospital and commercial use.

FIBREDOWN* CANDY WADDING—In several attractive designs.

FIBREDOWN* SANITARY SHEETING—
For hospital and sick room use.

*Trade mark reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

THE GENERAL CELLULOSE COMPANY, INC.
GARWOOD, NEW JERSEY

D. C. Taggart '16 - - - Pres. - Treas.

HENRY M. DEVEREUX, M.E. '33

YACHT DESIGNER

295 CITY ISLAND AVE.
CITY ISLAND, N. Y.

LAW OFFICES

WILLIAM HARRIS '09

60 Park Place

NEWARK, N. J.

Phone,
Market 3-2520-1-2-3

Cable Address
"Wilhar"

STANTON CO.---REALTORS

GEORGE H. STANTON '20

Real Estate and Insurance
MONTCLAIR and VICINITY

16 Church St., Montclair, N.J., Tel. 2-6000

THEY SAY---

"I have dreamed some old Cornell dreams with the help of OUR CORNELL. . ."

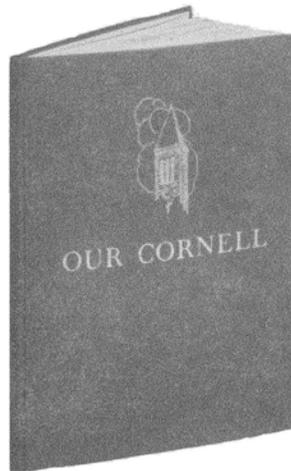

"The book stirred up pleasant and rich memories and made delightful reading. . ."

"OUR CORNELL has been read several times. The little volume well presents those phases of Campus life so close to the heart of a Cornellian. . ."

"It will help me to describe to parents the peculiar atmosphere of Cornell. . ."

"There is always room in my library for such treasures about Cornell. . ."

"OUR CORNELL is brilliant. . ."

FIRST EDITION $1 A COPY POSTPAID

Ninety pages, bound in red cloth with gold stamping, attractively boxed

Clip this ad, write name and address on margin or attach your gift list and personal cards to be enclosed, and mail with payment to: . . .

THE PERFECT GIFT

TO YOURSELF—TO GOOD FRIENDS

Whether Cornellians or Not

Here is Your Cornell, as you know and feel the University—but put into words and pictures by Cornellians who are master craftsmen.

Hendrik Willem Van Loon '05 • E. B. White '21
Kenneth Roberts '08 • Raymond F. Howes '24
Dana Burnett '11 • Romeyn Berry '04 • Morris
Bishop '14 • Thomas S. Jones, Jr. '04

Illustrated by

Margaret Bourke-White '27 • Barrett Gallagher '35

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS
3 EAST AVENUE ITHACA, N. Y.

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS

Subscription price $4 a year. Entered as second class matter, Ithaca, N. Y. Published weekly during the college year and monthly in July and August

VOL. XLII, NO. 14

ITHACA, NEW YORK, JANUARY 11, 1940

PRICE, 15 CENTS

NOMINATE TUTTLE '18 For Alumni Trustee

First nomination for Alumni Trustee of the University for the five-year term beginning next June is Elbert Parr Tuttle '18, of Atlanta, Ga. His nomination was filed with the University Treasurer December 28.

Tuttle has been active in alumni affairs for several years. He is a former president of the Cornell Club of Atlanta; was elected district director of the Cornell Alumni Corporation at the convention in Baltimore, Md., in 1936; and director-at-large and vice-president of the Corporation at the Chicago, Ill. convention in 1938. As chairman of the Corporation's committee on alumni reorganization, he presided at meetings of representatives of the constituent agencies and drafted the plan which was adopted last June to form the present Cornell Alumni Association, of which he remains as vice-president and director for the Southern district. He was also a member of the Pound Memorial committee of the Cornell Law Association which raised a fund for scholarships in the Law School and for the portrait of the late Cuthbert W. Pound '87 which now hangs in Myron Taylor Hall.

Member of the law firm of Sutherland, Tuttle & Brennan, with offices in Atlanta and Washington, D. C., Tuttle is a past president of the Georgia Bar Association and of the Lawyers' Club of Atlanta, and a member of the American and Atlanta Bar associations. He served as national president of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, and as commander of his American Legion post.

Born in Pasadena, Cal., July 17, 1897, Tuttle entered the College of Arts and Sciences from Punahou Academy, Honolulu, Hawaii. He was editor-in-chief of the Cornell Daily Sun, president of the Student Council, of the CUCA and of Sphinx Head, and a member of Manuscript, Sunday Night, Janus, Rocky Mountain, and Hawaii clubs and of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity. Receiving the AB in 1918, he served five months in the Army Air Service, was commissioned a second lieutenant, and was for a short time a member of the staff of the Army and Navy Journal in Washington.

He returned to Ithaca in 1920 as publicity director of the Semi-centennial Endowment campaign, and entered the Law School, receiving the LLB in 1923. As a Law student, he held a Boardman Scholarship, was a member of the Order of the Coif and Phi Kappa Phi, and was editor-in-chief of the Law Quarterly.

Elbert Parr Tuttle '18

During 1921-23 he was also business manager of the ALUMNI NEWS.

In 1919, he married Sara Sutherland, of Atlanta, and she attended Cornell in 1920, completing work begun at Agnes Scott and Goucher Colleges before their marriage. They have two children, Elbert, Jr. and Jane. Tuttle's brother is Malcolm H. Tuttle '18.

Two Alumni Trustees of the University are elected each year for five-year terms, upon nomination of ten or more degree holders filed with the University Treasurer on or before April 1. Immediately thereafter, ballots are mailed to all degree holders of record, and results of elections are announced at the annual meetings of the Cornell Alumni Association in Ithaca, this year June 15. The term of George R. Pfann '24 expires next June, and a successor will be elected to the late Andrew J. Whinery '10, who died April 21, 1938.

TOMPKINS COUNTY has been allotted 549 more 1940 automobile license plates than a year ago, and the county clerk expects the entire quantity of 12,398 to be used. During 1939, he says, the sale increased 600 over the previous year.

END OF A JOURNEY

In Buffalo, last stop of the Musical Clubs Christmas trip, Directors Eric Dudley and George L. Coleman '95 were entertained at their table by Phyllis Lynn, the Hotel Statler's "blues" singer.

MUSICAL CLUBS TRIP Reported Great Success

From Cornell Clubs in Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Dayton, Pittsburgh, and Buffalo come enthusiastic reports of the Musical Clubs show, "In the Red," which played successive one-night stands in those cities beginning Christmas Day, and of capacity audiences everywhere. The title song, written and arranged by Richard H. Lee '41 of Washington, D. C., elicited special comment, as did the Glee Club's rendition of "Adeste Fideles" and the Instrumental Club's performance of Grofe's "On the Trail." Of "In the Red" the Cleveland Plain Dealer wrote: "College songs come and go; many that are chosen as the official college songs are of questionable worth, but it must be emphasized that Lee has contributed a piece of decent caliber."

The sixty-five members of the Clubs who made the trip remained in Ithaca for intensive rehearsals under the direction of Eric Dudley for the Glee Club and George L. Coleman '95 for the Instrumental Club, until early Christmas Day, when they left for Cleveland. Some highlights of their experiences are here recounted by the manager and magician-extraordinary, R. Selden Brewer '40 of East Hartford, Conn.:

"In Cleveland, Christmas night, the boys performed in true holiday spirit, but one member of the Instrumental Club carried it a little too far. By deciding to shave during the intermission, he not only added ten years to the manager's and several others' ages, but held up the second act twenty minutes. The enjoyable dance and party afterwards at the Hotel Cleveland helped us all to forget that we were spending Christmas night away from home.

"The next night in Detroit, the boys were rewarded for their performance by being provided with thirty debutantes to dine and dance at the fashionable Whittier Hotel. Added feature was an open house a la Willard Straight at the home of Dave Boynton '42 and his parents, to complete the evening of fun and frolic.

"In Chicago next day, a few of the boys 'crashed' the afternoon debut of Miss Shirley Garnett at the Blackstone, and the rest had opportunity to meet and dance with Chicago's fairest at the ball following the show at the Stevens Hotel. It was during this performance that Gil Cobb completely forgot his lines to the "Sophomore Song," but by means of clever stage presence he changed the situation into the hit of the show.

"A very tired group of boys boarded the train Thursday morning, but the atmosphere was much lightened by the presence of a fair young glamorous friend of our assistant manager, Jerry Noel, who made the trip to Dayton with us. Arriving there, we had an enjoyable dinner in the famed Kittyhawk Room of the Biltmore Hotel where the Junior Quartet made one of their three broadcasts. Heavy snow and a new bus driver caused the Clubs to get lost on their way to Runnymede Playhouse, but the show finally got underway and a very enjoyable dance followed. Grace Moore was singing that night in Dayton and from all reports she wished she had not competed against the Cornell Musical Clubs.

"The following night in Pittsburgh the boys rendered their best performance before nearly 2,000 persons in beautiful Carnegie Music Hall. They were in excellent form and Harold Zook's drumming in particular nearly stopped the show. The second balcony, filled with secondary school students who were guests of the Cornell Club of Western Pennsylvania, just wouldn't let him stop wielding his drumsticks. The dance and party afterwards at the University Club were a combination of a Junior Week at Cornell and a New Year's Eve in Paris.

"Arriving in Buffalo December 30, we were met by a brand-new fleet of Chevrolet cars supplied by Maurice W. Howe '16, and under police escort were transported to the Statler Hotel. That night the boys gave their last performance in a commendable manner before an enthusiastic audience. At dinner before the show, Mr. Dudley and the Instrumental Club's director, Mr. Coleman, were seen at a table with a beautiful blond chorine between them. All the boys then realized that this clever little girl must have known who deserved a great deal of credit for the show."

MICHIGAN ELECTS OFFICERS

New president of the Cornell Club of Michigan, succeeding Harold Cole '16, is Warren E. Rouse '13. With other officers elected at the annual meeting October 25, at the Red Run Golf Club near Detroit, he took office January 1. The others are Edgar W. Averill '28, vice-president; Fred M. Dorris '25, treasurer; J. Kenneth Payton '30, secretary; and Don F. Morse '33, industrial secretary.

At the meeting Matthew Carey, secretary of the Class of '15 and Alumni Trustee, told of recent events in Ithaca. Floyd L. Miller, publisher of the Royal Oak Tribune, described an automobile tour of Europe which terminated in England with the declaration of war.

AN OPPOSUM was found just before Christmas on the road which skirts Hoy Field behind Alumni House, by Robert L. Wiggins '40. He took it to his home in Forest Home, hoping to tame it.

About ATHLETICS

LEAGUE PLAY BEGINS

Three points in the last minute of play gave Pennsylvania a 27-26 victory over the basketball team at Philadelphia last Saturday night in the opening game of the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League.

The result left Cornell with three victories and six defeats.

Pennsylvania held the upper hand most of the way, leading by 13-12 at the half. The home team stretched the lead to 20-13 before Cornell rallied to tie at 24-24 on a set shot by Captain Alan W. Vaughan '40 of Western Springs, Ill.

Wellington L. Ramsey '41 of Haverford, Pa., put Cornell ahead, 26-24, on a pivot shot, but Soleliac of Pennsylvania banked in a one-handed shot. Fouled as he did so, he converted the free throw for the one-point margin of victory.

Ramsey, James L. Bennett, Jr. '41 of Poland, Ohio, and Howard S. Dunbar '41 of Roselle Park, N. J., topped the Cornell scorers with 6 points apiece.

On its holiday tour to the Middle West, the team lost four of five games, defeating Ohio State, 29-28, at Columbus, Ohio, January 1, for its only victory.

Before the tour, Cornell dropped a 27-26 decision to Syracuse at Syracuse, December 26.

The squad assembled at Toledo, Ohio, December 26, and lost to the University of Toledo, 45-29, the following night. The next night at Peoria, Ill., Cornell lost again, to Bradley Tech, 35-31.

They moved to Columbus and, on December 30, lost by 5 points, 29-24, to Michigan. The game was one of four played in Columbus on two nights, Pittsburgh defeating Ohio State in the other half of the double-header. Two nights later, as Cornell nosed out Ohio State, Michigan won from Pittsburgh.

On the way home Cornell stopped off at Buffalo January 2 and lost by one point, 42-41, to Canisius.

Bennett and Kenneth N. Jolly '41 of Ithaca set the scoring pace on the five-game tour, Bennett scoring 44 points, Jolly 42. Against Canisius, Bennett turned in 17 points. Jolly's high game score was 13 against Bradley Tech.

The Pennsylvania game box score:

CORNELL (26)
	G	F	P
Bennett, f	2	2	6
Vaughan, f	1	1	3
Ramsey, c	3	0	6
Jolly, g	0	1	1
Jack, g	0	0	0
Webster, g	0	0	0
Dunbar, g	2	2	6
Upton, g	2	0	4
Totals	10	6	26

PENNSYLVANIA (27)
	G	F	P
Pearce, f	1	0	2
Caputo, f	0	0	0
Hahn, f	1	3	5
Hook, c	0	0	0
Gustafson, c	0	0	0
Soleliac, c	3	1	7
Schreiber, g	1	3	5
Seeders, g	2	4	8
Totals	8	11	27

Score at half: Pennsylvania 13, Cornell 12.
Referees, Sinnott and Solodare.

The Junior Varsity basketball team defeated Scranton-Keystone, 27-18, in the Drill Hall last Saturday. Will D. Templeton '42 of Niagara Falls was the high scorer with 10 points as Cornell gained an early lead and was never headed.

Its first game, against Syracuse at Syracuse December 19, the Junior Varsity lost, 32-21. Templeton was likewise the high scorer with 6 points.

MORE FOOTBALL SELECTIONS

Last of the 1939 all-America football selections—a players' team published in Liberty magazine—listed Nicholas Drahos '41 of Cedarhurst as tackle. More than 1,000 players from ninety-one colleges voted. Captain-elect Walter J. Matuszczak '41 of Lowville, back; Howard S. Dunbar '41 of Roselle Park, N. J., guard; and Drahos were selected on an all-East team. Honorable mention went to Halfbacks M. Witmer Baker '40 of New Cumberland, Pa., and Harold F. McCullough '41 of Brooklyon.

The Liberty award, a gold football, was presented Drahos by H. Stanley Lomax '23, sports broadcaster, during his program over Station WOR, Newark, N. J., December 28. Another guest on the program was Frank L. Sundstrom '24, last Cornell tackle to receive all-America recognition. Sundstrom was chosen for Walter Camp's last team, in 1923.

Baker, meanwhile, traveled to Montgomery, Ala., December 30, with the North football team coached by Carl Snavely of Cornell and Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern. Baker scored one touchdown and passed thirty-five yards to Tranavitch of Rutgers for another touchdown. But the South won, 33-20. Snavely and Waldorf will coach the North team again in 1940.

Of the Rose Bowl football game January 1, in which Southern California defeated Tennessee, 14-0, Stanley Woodward, sports editor of the New York Herald Tribune, wrote: "Cornell probably would have beaten either of them. Neither showed a versatile attack or anything approximating the smoothness, variety, and deftness of Ithaca. . . ."

Five of Cornell's 150-pound football players were selected on the all-Eastern Intercollegiate Lightweight Football League team last week. They were William P. Mathers '41 of Brookline, Pa., center; David S. Holland '40 of Pulaski, guard; Wayne Palmer '41 of Irvington-on-Hudson, tackle; and Philip D. Astry '42 of Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Wright Bronson, Jr. '40 of Akron, Ohio, backs. Two Princeton, two Rutgers, one Yale, and one Pennsylvania players made up the rest of the first team.

William C. Houck '40 of Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, was named end on the second team.

POLO TEAM LOSES FOUR

Return game with the Westfield Polo Club the ROTC polo team lost, 11-8, January 6 at Westfield, N. J. In the Riding Hall and with their own horses, Cornell had defeated Westfield, 31-6, December 2.

Saturday night, with Westfield leading 4-3 at the half, Captain Garrison B. Coverdale, the coach, sent in James Armstrong '40 of Fullers in place of Warren W. Hawley III '40 of Batavia at No. 3, to try to stop the Westfield riders led by Lieutenant Brown with a two-goal rating. But even 5 more goals in the last period by Cornell's captain, James M. Easter '41 of Owings Mills, Md., and Herbert F. Schiffer '41 of Elberon, N. J., with Hawley back in the game, were not enough.

On a Christmas recess tour to Detroit and Cincinnati, the ROTC team lost three games. Detroit Polo Club won, 24-18, December 21, and the Cincinnati Cavalry won by scores of 17-9 and 22-15, December 22 and 23. Schiffer scored 16 goals in the three games. Hawley scored 12 and Captain Easter, 8.

WRESTLERS AT WORK

Novice wrestling championships were decided in the Old Armory before the Christmas recess. The champions: 121 pounds, Howard M. Nye '42 of Jamesville; 128 pounds, Edward M. Smallwood '43 of Warsaw; 136 pounds, Fred S. McCloskey '41 of Hamburg; 145 pounds, David P. Mertz '43 of Elkins Park, Pa.; 155 pounds, William T. Hagar '41 of Langhorne, Pa.; 165 pounds, James S. Stokoe '43 of Linwood; 175 pounds, Fenton E. Brown '43 of Amsterdam; unlimited class, Clayton S. Rockmore '43 of New York City.

Stokoe is the son of William C. Stokoe '13, former Varsity middleweight wrestler. Stokoe's opponent in the final was Bernard A. George '43 of North Java, son of the professional wrestler, Ed Don George. Smallwood, the 128-pound novice champion is blind. Coach Walter C. O'Connell '11 says he is a good prospect for the Varsity.

Robert H. Mathers '40 of Upper Darby, Pa., Eastern Intercollegiate 121-pound wrestling champion, was injured in practice January 4. Coach O'Connell said last Sunday that the doctors had not yet determined the extent of the injury. It may be a broken sternum, a broken rib, or a pulled muscle. If the

SCORES OF THE TEAMS
Basketball
Syracuse 27, Cornell 26	Toledo 45, Cornell 29
Bradley Tech 35, Cornell 31	Michigan 29, Cornell 24
Cornell 29, Ohio State 28	Canisius 42, Cornell 41
Pennsylvania 27, Cornell 26
Hockey
Colgate 9, Cornell 2	Boston College 24, Cornell 1
Cornell 5, Hamilton 4	MIT 5, Cornell 3
Cornell 4, Middlebury 2
Polo
Detroit Polo Club 24, Cornell 18	Cincinnati Cavalry 17, Cornell 9
Cincinnati Cavalry 22, Cornell 15	Westfield Polo Club 11, Cornell 8
Fencing
St. John's 14, Cornell 13
Junior Varsity Basketball
Syracuse 32, Cornell 21
Cornell 27, Scranton-Keystone 18

sternum is broken, the coach said, Mathers will be lost for the season. Otherwise, he will be out of action several weeks but may be available for the Intercollegiates in March.

Coach O'Connell is being assisted this season by Thomas G. Lamberti '33, former Varsity wrestler, now assistant in Hygiene.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS TWO

The hockey team turned in two victories in five games played at Rye and Lake Placid during the holidays.

In two games at Rye December 26 and 27, Cornell lost to Colgate, 9-2, and Boston College, 24-1.

The team then moved to Lake Placid for the annual College Week invitation tournament January 1-3. The team defeated Hamilton, 5-4, then lost to MIT, 5-3. In a consolation-round match, Cornell defeated Middlebury, 4-2, as Colgate won the tournament.

SKIERS AT LAKE PLACID

Varsity ski team, after a week's practice at Stowe, N. H., finished seventh of twelve teams in the nineteenth annual Christmas ski meet at the Lake Placid Club.

Middlebury won the meet with 492.5 points, followed by Harvard, 478.1; Yale, 465.6; Williams, 464.5; Princeton, 433.4; Colgate, 366.9; Cornell, 307.1; Syracuse, 257.9; Hamilton, 229; Penn State, 154.5; Queens, 89.6; and Toronto, 30.8.

In the race for the individual trophy, won by Gignac of Middlebury, Arnold Nye '41 of Bronxville finished eleventh and Jonathan B. Fisher, Jr. '41 of Rocky River, Ohio, twelfth. Other Cornell point scorers were Robert T. Edmunds '42 of New Hartford, William O. Nicoll '41 of Scotia, and Johannes P. Kulka '41 of New York City.

A scheduled meet at Hamilton January 6 with Colgate and Dartmouth was cancelled because of lack of snow.

FENCERS LOSE FIRST

Varsity fencing team lost to St. John's University in Brooklyn, 14-13, in a vacation match.

Charles N. Lowenfeld '40 of New York City finished fifth in a field of thirty-five in the New York Athletic Club's invitation meet.

ODDS AND ENDS

Jerome I. Lieberthal '42 of Brooklyn set the pace for a quintet of Cornell tennis players in the national junior indoor tennis tournament at the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York City, during the holidays. Lieberthal reached the fourth round, one round short of the quarter-finals, where he lost to Schwartzmann of Tulane. Three other Cornell players were eliminated in the third round. They were Richard I. Fricke '43 of Ithaca, Wallace B. Rogers '43 of Staten Island, and James A. Stein '43 of Scarsdale.

At Brookline, Mass., playing in the national indoor tournament for girls, Katharine L. Rogers '43 of Westfield, N. J., daughter of Theodore C. Rogers '16, paired with Katharine Hubbell of Dedham, Mass., to reach the final round in doubles. They were defeated by Margaret Madden of Boston and Dorothy Wightman of Brookline, 6-2, 6-4. In singles, Miss Rogers lost, 6-2, 7-5, to Martha Elliott, Wellesley champion, in an early round.

Ernst Engel, coach of the ski team, is now a licensed airplane pilot.

Irving T. Marsh, writing on basketball prospects of the teams in the Eastern Intercollegiate League for the Central Office for Intercollegiate Athletics, said "Cornell is the team every coach . . . except the one most vitally concerned, picks to win the 1940 title. . . . Blair Gullion . . . insists that his 1940 team still is a year away from the title."

Frederic V. Siemer '39, Eastern Intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion the last two years, has given up his intention to enter professional boxing. He is now working in Buffalo.

George K. James, assistant coach in football and basketball, represented Cornell at the National Collegiate Athletic Association meeting in Los Angeles, Cal. during the holidays.

J. Russell Murphy, assistant coach in football and basketball, spent part of the holiday scouting Cornell basketball opponents in the Middle West.

NOW IN MY TIME!

By Romeyn Berry

The towel race between Dr. Frank Sheehan and Butch, the Drill Hall janitor, must have occurred sometime around 1931. Frank recalls that it happened while Johnny Ferraro was playing basketball, but that is as near as he can come to fixing the date. He's much clearer on the other details, such as the bet being $2 and Sergeant Jensen holding the stakes and him being the winner, although it took years to get Sergeant Jensen to hand over the money.

The incident arose from Frank's running out of towels in the basketball dressing room, then (as now) located on the ground floor at the west end of the Drill Hall. Calling a compet, Frank told him to get more towels from Ed Vredenberg at Schoellkopf, and instructed him that the quickest way was to run out the west door, around the corner of the building, and then right straight to the athletic laundry.

Butch, who had been standing by, then horned in to the conversation to the extent of denying hotly that the route suggested was the shortest way. Butch said it was much shorter and quicker to run upstairs across the main drill floor to the east sally-port, and thence to Schoellkopf. He said he was janitor of the building and ought to know. Frank replied that Butch was nutty and he ought to know.

At this point, the compet drops out of the story entirely. From then on, Frank and Butch argued the point, surrounded by a fascinated audience of compets, naked basketball players, and non-commissioned officers of the United States Army. Frank bet he could go the way he told the compet and get back before Butch did, which would prove his way was the quickest; and Butch bet $2 Frank couldn't, which would show it was shorter to go upstairs and out by the east sally-port.

Sergeant Marks acted as starter and the contestants sped away, which is almost all there is to the story on account of the big towel race turning out a complete flop as a public spectacle, because Butch found the east sally-port locked and he didn't have the right key with him.

Butch claimed the event ought to be declared "no contest," but Frank, who returned in the course of time with two warm towels, said Sergeant Jensen ought to pay him the money because he got back first like they said. Against that, Butch argued that the race was to prove which was the shortest route and it had proved nothing on account of the east sally-port being locked.

Sergeant Jensen was worried about what to do with the $4 and asked Colonel Beacham what he thought, but Colonel Joe refused to take sides. He said he'd been in the Army too long to get snarled up in a case like that; and he never thought basketball was a man's game anyhow!

LETTERS

Subject to the usual restrictions of space and good taste, we shall print letters from subscribers on any side of any subject of interest to Cornellians. The ALUMNI NEWS often may not agree with the sentiments expressed, and disclaims any responsibility beyond that of fostering interest in the University.

VICTORY TRANSLATED

TO THE EDITOR:

Now that the shouting and the tumult is over, and Cornellians are going about with that having-eaten-the-canary look, this commentary may not unduly intrude upon the happy scene. First, however, salutations to the gallant youths whose cooperative efforts blended into those rigorous disciplines and dynamic precisions which dominated all opposition. "Hats off" also to Jim Lynah and Carl Snavely. A winning football team—and such a winner!—stirring the emotions of Cornellians the country over, dramatizing our common faith in Alma Mater and rendering us prideful as only true sons and daughters can be thus transported. How sweet are the fruits of victory!

Triumphs, however, athletic or otherwise, are ephemeral and their pæans soon become faint echoes. Meanwhile, "Watchman, what of the night?" Confessedly, there never would have been a Cornell football team, victorious or otherwise, unless some seventy years ago, with vision and sacrifice, the University had been founded, and unless for these past seventy-odd years, also with sacrifice, its sustenance and development had gone steadily on. In the midst of rejoicing it is good to reflect and thus realize that those loyalties which find, so easily, ecstatic expression in a grandstand on a Saturday afternoon in November have their deep roots in the traditions of the University as a great institution of learning; and so to recall that it is our concern, as certainly it is our privilege, to respond in maintaining the conditions whereunder Cornell may thrive and continue to make its vital contribution.

Obviously, one of the most essential of these conditions is the permanent establishment on a broad basis of an unrestricted income made up by annual gifts from many alumni, of whom there are approximately 60,000. From this number, surely, we should be able to produce an Alumni Fund as successful and as important in its field of University functions as has been this season's football team. If such be the case, those of us (and we must be legion) who, by attendance, or by radio, or by newspaper, or by casual conversation, have during October and November, as the result of the valiant efforts of fifty-odd undergraduates, experienced some lift of the spirit, some respite from the routine of life, might consider making an offering on the altar of victory by an annual gift to the Alumni Fund. If every gift equaled in each year only the cost of attending one of those eight games, would it not cap the season and fittingly crown the victory?—WINTHROP TAYLOR '07

FROM FAR BELOW . . .

By Robert L. Bliss '30

Miss Mack, that intrepid amanuensis of calligraphy who gets our thoughts in legible form, just stuck her head in the door and rang the curtain down on our holiday recess with "It's 4:30 now, and if you don't get that started it won't make the night train for Ithaca and Mr. Stevenson will have a wire here in the morning!" (Well, subscribers cry for it!—Ed.) Exit holly berries and cold turkey pickin's, strong cigars and lurid neckties. Welcome, 1940!

The year-end passed on this man's island of madness with the usual to-do. They estimated a million and a quarter Gothamites in Times Square, the biggest shindy since '29. Tables in night clubs were $20 a cover. One of the velvet-lined sewers installed a barber shop to accommodate habitués on the overlong weekend. Another made copy with a concoction called a Zombie. Some imbibers haven't turned up yet. The ingredients resembled in variety Penrod Schofield's famous spring housecleaning odds-and-ends mixture sold to the unsuspecting Willie Baxter as Grade A licorice water. But the result was different.

Around the Cornell Club, open house brought few takers. Most had read the press predictions for the season and taken to the country. On New Year's Day even the standbys had been evacuated. "Gone With the Wind" had brought snow, and skis began to appear in Grand Central. Carl Hallock mixed up one of Theodore Zinck's Fish House Punches and a few camels came to the waterhole.

* * *

Among recent evacués from Finland pictured in the papers you may have noticed a mother with two attractive youngsters who arrived here just before Christmas. You might like to know that the first English learned and spoken by the little boys after they arrived were the two words "Hurrah, Cornell!" The sons of the former Miss Isolde Antell, they'd been carefully coached by Uncles Tristan '13 and Bertel '28, who figure you're never too young to learn.

* * *

The Training Table, a downtown luncheon club composed of some 700

more recent alumni of the Ivy League colleges, was dissolved as of the end of last year. Unique in club annals, there was the embarrassing problem of a balance in the treasury to be gotten rid of, and rather than give each member a hatful of farthings, it was decided to divide it among several boys' charities.

One of the members, Dud Schoales '29, past captain of the Big Red, whose hobby is The Boys Club of New York, called us up to thank the Club for their check and asked us if we'd like to hear what our money bought. His organization will spend it on boys' camp vacations this summer. Their portion was a little less than $100, and he pointed out that that would send ten boys to camp for two weeks each. Statistics show that the kids gain 3.03 pounds a week apiece during their stay, or a total of around sixty pounds for the group. Which puts the current quotation on boys at a little less than $2 a pound, if you're still keeping up with us.

* * *

Fitch Stephens '05 tells us that as a result of our remarks about him and the Affair Ruloff, he had a telephone call from Binghamton the other day from a party who possessed the top part of the murderous philologist's hat, which he offered him. Fitch made haste to Binghamton to accept the prized gift. Which now brings up a point,—sort of a "button, button, who's got the brim?" situation. Come on, readers, cough up! A man's got a right to complete his file, hasn't he?

HOTELMEN VISIT PITTSBURG

Cornell Club of Western Pennsylvania had as luncheon guests at the Yale-Harvard-Princeton Club in Pittsburgh, December 14, Professor Howard B. Meek, Hotel Administration, and two Seniors of the Department. Professor Meek showed motion pictures of the Campus and described the work in Hotel Administration. Twenty-five alumni were present. Darwin F. Carrell '23 presided.

NEW ENGLAND OFFICERS

Cornell Club of New England at its annual meeting December 11 elected Norman F. Bissell '27 president for this year, succeeding Giles M. Smith '08, who presided. Laurence M. Selleck '15 is vice-president; M. Gregory Dexter '24, secretary; Archie C. Burnett '90, treasurer. H. Hunt Bradley '26 of Providence is vice-president for Rhode Island; Robert C. Bradley, PhD '26, of Durham, vice-president for New Hampshire; and A. Bradford Reed '27 of Worcester, vice-president for Central Massachusetts. Carlton H. Barrows, AM '33, was elected athletic director.

George H. Rockwell, '13 Class secretary and Alumni Trustee, was the principal speaker at the meeting, which was attended by thirty members of the Club.

ALUMNI AND STUDENTS GATHER

Christmas recess was again the occasion for pleasant gatherings of alumni and undergraduates at the invitation of Cornell Clubs in many cities. At some of these were the fathers of students, and some Clubs also invited prospective Cornellians. Reports received by the ALUMNI NEWS agree that this year's parties were more largely attended and more successful than ever before. Reports received by press time are:

Christmas party of the Cornell Club of Chicago brought together 121 alumni, sons and other relatives, undergraduates, future Cornellians, and Professors Lewis W. Morse '28 and Lyman P. Wilson of the Law School for luncheon at the Sherman Hotel, December 30. Millard F. Bingham, 3d '27, president of the Club, presided, and after luncheon motion pictures of the Ohio State game were commented upon by C. Longford Felske '24, and Cornell songs were sung.

Cornell Club of Cleveland "father and son banquet" December 29 could not accommodate all of the 300 alumni, undergraduates and their fathers who came to the Hotel Carter, but the overflow ate luncheon elsewhere and returned for the program of talks by several Cornellians including Edward E. Hughes II '38, recent football captain, and an address by Dr. Joel Hayden, head master of Western Reserve Academy. Then the crowd moved to a larger room to enjoy motion pictures of the Ohio State football game and their explanation by Conant Van Blarcom '08.

Sixty-three alumni and undergraduates attended the annual dinner meeting of the Cornell Club of Dutchess County, in the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie, December 28. Introduced by District Attorney John R. Schwartz '18, Coach Nicholas Bawlf, director of intramural sports, told of the development of athletics at the University, and Co-captain Kenneth G. Brown '40 of Millerton described the recent football season. Lloyd L. Rosenthal '32, vice-president, was advanced to become president of the Club, succeeding George Fowler '13, who was elected trustee of the Herman Vail Memorial Fund which provides a scholarship at the University. Robert P. Stieglitz '31 was elected vice-president, and Arthur T. Williams '34, secretary and treasurer.

At the Montclair, N. J., Golf Club December 21, 250 Cornellians enjoyed the annual Christmas smoker of the Cornell Club of Essex County. Among the number were nineteen undergraduates, all of whom were called to their feet by the toastmaster, Joseph Kastner, Jr. '12. Included were Frank K. Finneran '41 and William J. Murphy '41 of the football team, who paid brief tribute to Coach Snavelly, and Robert B. Vincelette '42, the first to hold a Club Scholarship from Essex County. The coaches of Montclair High School, Montclair Academy, and Bloomfield High School were also introduced. Frank L. Sundstrom '24 presented Joe Williams, sports editor of the New York World Telegram, who complimented the Cornell football team and coaches; and William W. Sproul '28 introduced the combined and separate music of John D. MacDonald '24 and Donald S. MacDonald '26, singers, and Alfred F. Sulla, Jr. '29, banjoist. To end the evening came showing of the Ohio State football game movies and their explanation by Alfred D. Williams, Jr. '42.

Twenty-six undergraduates, twenty-nine alumni, and two prospective Freshmen renewed and made acquaintance at a Cornell Club of New England luncheon December 27 at the Parker House in Boston. Each of the undergraduates was introduced by President Norman F. Bissell '27, and Louis C. Bufalino '42 spoke of football and James B. Pender '40, of track. Alumni Trustee George H. Rockwell '13 outlined New England traditions and those of the University, and compared them.

More than seventy-five Cornell women and guests, including alumnae, undergraduates, Miss R. Louise Fitch, Dean of Women, and representatives of the Cornell Women's Clubs of Albany and Middletown, attended dinner of the Cornell Women's Club of New York December 27, and a discussion of fields of work by six successful alumnae. Leading the panel, Marguerite Hicks '26 of the personnel relations group department, Equitable Life Assurance Society, questioned the other speakers concerning job opportunities, training, qualifications, advancement, compensation. These were Helen R. Wansboro '10, senior examiner, New York State Insurance Department; Grace F. Marcus '15, assistant executive secretary, American Association of Social Workers; Mrs. John W. Arnold (Dorothy McSparran) '18, assistant dean of Washington Square College, New York University; Pelagia B. K. Schultz '25, Norcross Publishing Co.; Mary A. North '35, dress designer and sales promotion; and Jean E. Hallock '36, radio.

Best of six annual Christmas luncheons of the Cornell Club of Northern New York is the report of the one December 29, at the Woodruff Hotel in Watertown. Forty alumni and undergraduates applauded Walter J. Matuszczak '41, football captain-elect and guest of honor, as he paid tribute to Coach Snavelly and the members of the team. President Samuel H. Abbey '09 was toastmaster, and Judge Henry J. Kimball '11 gave the principal address. Arthur W. Mattson '11, chairman of the community dinner for Matuszczak in Lowville January 13, spoke briefly, and Cornell songs were led by Richard H. Taylor '20 and Harold J. Richardson '05.

Cornell Club of Philadelphia took advantage of the presence of Professors Frank A. Southard, Jr., Economics, and Leland Spencer '18 and Myers P. Rasmussen '19, Agricultural Economics, to have them at their luncheon for undergraduates, December 27. Other guests of honor were four local members of the Varsity football team, Louis J. Conti '41, Kirk Hershey '41, Raymond Jenkins '42, and Frederick W. J. West '41, all of whom were introduced by the toastmaster, Emmet J. Murphy '22. Hershey spoke briefly. Twenty alumni and fifteen other undergraduates attended. Murphy pointed out that undergraduates as well as alumni can interest promising secondary school students in the University, and then introduced Professor Southard, who described some of the work in the Department of Economics.

Alumni with their sons, and undergraduates and their fathers to the number of 135 attended the annual luncheon of the Cornell Club of Rochester December 27 at the University Club. Kenneth B. Spear '22, Boy Scout executive of Rochester, spoke on the subject, "Good Scouts," introduced by President Alfred M. Darlow '06.

About 200 alumni, undergraduates, and prospective Cornellians gathered at the University Club December 30 for the Christmas luncheon of the Cornell Club of Syracuse. Honored guest was Judge Frank H. Hiscock '75, former chairman of the Board of Trustees, who spoke briefly. Norman L. Egbert '24, the toastmaster, then introduced Professor Bristow Adams, Agriculture Publications, who recounted "Echoes from the Campus," Coaches Mose P. Quinn and John H. Rowland, Captain-elect Matuszczak, and Robert H. Ecker '40 who is president of the Junior Cornell Club of Syracuse. The coaches commented on football motion pictures as they were shown, and Charles E. Montague '09 sang a solo.

Cornell Club of Trenton, N. J., entertained ten undergraduates, several alumni from New Brunswick, and other guests at a buffet dinner with sixty-two persons present, at the Community Clubhouse in Princeton, N. J., December 27. "Club chef" was Percy N. Daniels '14. President William H. Hill '21 introduced each of the undergraduates and Frank L. Sundstrom '24, who described movies of the Ohio State football game as they were shown. Howard T. Critchlow '10 described the social activities of the Club, and then followed bowling, ping-pong, and other games.

COMING EVENTS

Time and place of regular Club luncheons are printed separately as we have space. Notices of other Cornell events, both in Ithaca and abroad, appear below. Contributions to this column must be received on or before Thursday to appear the next Thursday.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 13

Ithaca: Wrestling, Varsity & Freshman, Penn State, Old Armory, 2:30, 7
Freshman basketball, Peddie School, Drill Hall, 6:30
Basketball, Pittsburgh, Drill Hall, 8
Annapolis, Md.: Boxing, US Naval Academy
New Haven, Conn.: Swimming, Yale
Canton: Hockey, St. Lawrence
Lowville: Community dinner for Walter J. Matuszczak '41, Masonic Temple, 6

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17

Ithaca: Freshman basketball, Syracuse, Drill Hall, 6:30
Basketball, Columbia, Drill Hall, 8

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19

Ithaca: Dramatic Club presents four comedies by Robert E. Gard, AM '38, Willard Straight Theater, 8:15
Cambridge, Mass.: Polo, Harvard
New Haven, Conn.: Basketball, Yale
New York City: Swimming, Columbia

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20

Ithaca: Fencing, Yale, Drill Hall, 2:30
Freshman basketball, Ithaca College, Drill Hall, 2:30
Boxing, Varsity and Freshman, Yale, Old Armory, 7
Dramatic Club presents four comedies by Robert E. Gard, AM '38, Willard Straight Theater, 8:15
Hartford, Conn.: Polo, Hartford Polo Club
West Point: Basketball, US Military Academy
Swimming, US Military Academy
New Haven, Conn.: Wrestling, Yale
LaPlume, Pa.: Freshman wrestling, Scranton-Keystone

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23

Ithaca: University concert, Hart House Quartet, Willard Straight Theater, 8:15

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26

Ithaca: Dramatic Club presents "Kind Lady," by Edward Chodorov, Willard Straight Theater, 8:15

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS

FOUNDED 1899

3 EAST AVENUE ITHACA, N. Y.

Published weekly during the University year, monthly in July and August: thirty-five issues annually.

Owned and published by the Cornell Alumni Association under direction of a committee composed of R. W. Sailor '07, Phillips Wyman '17, and Walter C. Heasley, Jr. '30. Officers of the Association: Creed W. Fulton '09, 907 Fifteenth St., N.W., Washington, D. C., president; Foster M. Coffin '12, Willard Straight Hall, Ithaca, secretary; Archie C. Burnett '90, 7 Water St., Boston, Mass., treasurer.

Subscription: $4.00 a year in U. S. and possessions; Canada, $4.35; Foreign, $4.50. Single copies fifteen cents. Subscriptions are payable in advance and are renewed annually unless cancelled.

Editor-in-chief R. W. SAILOR '07
Managing Editor H. A. STEVENSON '19
Assistant Editor MARGARET S. MOORE '37
Office Manager RUTH RUSSELL '31

Contributors:

ROMEYN BERRY '04 W. J. WATERS '27

R. L. BLISS '30

Printed at The Cayuga Press

GUESTS OF OHIO STATE

Ohio State alumni group in Albany, meeting at the Aurania Club December 11, invited Cornell Club members to join them in seeing their motion pictures of the Ohio State-Cornell football game and of Ohio State playing Minnesota. About seventy-five Cornellians attended, and fifty-five Ohio State alumni.

ALUMNI BUSINESS LEADERS

Three Cornellians took prominent part in the Congress of American Industry in New York City early in December, called by the National Association of Manufacturers and described as "the most soul-searching and comprehensive review of the American system of enterprise that has ever taken place."

Wallace T. Holliday '05, president of Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, pointed out that "for 1500 years the ability of the ordinary man to buy goods with his labor did not improve perceptibly, but in 122 years under the American system the purchasing power of wages climbed 1,222 per cent."

Roy W. Moore '12, president of Canada Dry Ginger Ale, urged industrialists to root out all "ism" advocates wherever found, terming them "stealthy marauders" who would undermine the national defense.

Edgar M. Queeny '19, president of Monsanto Chemical Co., was elected a vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Year-end statements from business and industrial leaders published in the New York Times included one from Neal Dow Becker '05, University Trustee and president of the Intertype Corporation, citing some "heartening signs" for the new year that might lead to general improvement, or at least to improvement in business morale. Among these he finds "growing sentiment that private enterprise must be safeguarded and preserved, rising sentiment against overspending and oppressive taxation, and realization by labor that its prosperity is dependent upon a prosperous industry."

Carl W. Badenhausen '16, chairman of the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, is quoted as saying that the year just ended was "the most significant in the industry's history because of the extent of cooperation with public officials in law enforcement. Brewers and wholesalers in nine States united in 'clean up or close up' committees to enforce better standards in beer retailing. These State committees sponsored 6,500 investigations, warnings, and requests for official action." Pointing out that taxes on beer now amount to more than $1,000,000 a day and that the industry helps maintain jobs for more than 1,000,000 persons and buys the products of 3,000,000 acres of American farm land, he said, "We have made a real start during the last year and expect still better results during 1940."

ON THE CAMPUS AND DOWN THE HILL

RED BALL went up at Beebe Lake three days after Christmas, and last Saturday the toboggan slide was opened, having been filled in record time with nine-inch ice. Snow brought a white Christmas to Ithaca, and bracing cold has made fine skating weather.

WILLARD STRAIGHT HALL and the International Association of Ithaca served Christmas dinner to 201 students who were away from their homes in thirty-nine States, three territories, and twenty-one foreign countries. After dinner, they had games and entertainment of many lands, with Donald C. Kerr '12, University counsellor to foreign students, as master of ceremonies and Santa Claus. Christmas week, forty-four students from twenty foreign lands were guests at the Ithaca Rotary Club luncheon.

YEAR OF 1939 in Ithaca brought fewer deaths, more births, and fewer marriages than in 1938. Deaths decreased from 328 to 325; the 522 children born were forty-five per cent more than the previous year; marriage licenses numbered 167, as compared with 183 in the preceding twelve months. Five persons died as a result of eighty-four traffic accidents, and 2,744 of the 3,425 arrests were for infractions of parking rules.

MAYOR JOSEPH C. CAMPBELL, inducted into office at the City Hall New Year's Day, announced a program of reduced expenditures, simplification of the city government, and a balanced budget. He appointed Louis K. Thaler '25 city attorney in place of Truman K. Powers '30; Henry C. Thorne '10, building commissioner; Lawrence M. Mintz '11, acting city judge; Paul S. Livermore '97 to the board of health; Joseph J. Driscoll '15 and Richard E. Metzger '28 to the board of zoning appeals; and Albert A. Ward '13 to the board of appeals on the building code. The new Common Council elected Alderman Arthur N. Gibb '90 to be acting mayor and chairman of the finance committee and Alderman Carl W. Vail '16 as a member of the finance committee.

TAXES levied against city property owners for County old age assistance for seven years since the city set up its own district and itself levied such taxes, beginning in 1931, were ruled illegal by the State Court of Appeals, December 28, in a test case brought by the Morse Chain Co. The total amount thus paid by city taxpayers is approximately $89,000, but the first three years' payments are now outlawed. City Attorney Truman K. Powers '30 discovered two years ago that Ithaca property owners had been paying both for old age assistance within the city and for sixty-three per cent of FOUNDER'S DAY, January 11, brings to the Campus on the 133d birthday of Ezra Cornell Marian Anderson, Negro contralto. After the concert, for which every seat in Bailey Hall had been sold last week, the Willard Straight board of managers, Student Council, and Women's Self Government Association gave a reception for the entire community, with the Founder's grandchildren as special guests of honor. Receiving with President and Mrs. Day in Willard Straight Memorial Room were Charles E. Cornell and Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Eunice Cornell Taylor, Miss Dorothy Cornell, and Miss Mary E. Cornell. Other relatives living in Ithaca and also honored are Mrs. Franklin C. Cornell, Jr. and her daughter, Margaret H. Cornell '31, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Cornell III.

the cost for the nine towns outside. An agreed statement of facts by Powers and County Attorney Charles H. Newman '13 brought a ruling in favor of city taxpayers from the Appellate Court, and the Morse Chain Co. claim was submitted to the State's highest court at the instance of the county board of supervisors. Provision is being made by the supervisors to repay the taxes collected.

QUICK SELLOUT was experienced by the Music Department last week when it placed on sale about 250 tickets for Marian Anderson's concert January 11 in Bailey Hall. These were all the surplus over the season ticket sale. In just ninety minutes after the sale opened, the day after Christmas recess, the last ticket was gone, and many persons turned away disappointed.

LECTURER on the Schiff Foundation January 10 was Dr. Moritz J. Bonn, "The Economy of Nazism." In 1916-17, then professor of political economy in the University of Munich and director of the Munich School of Commerce, Dr. Bonn gave a series of lectures here on "The Expansion of Germany." Now exiled from Nazi Germany, he is a naturalized British citizen, for six years has been lecturer at the school of economics and political science of the University of London. In the interval he was director of the Berlin School of Commerce, adviser to the German Government on reparations questions, and was adviser to the preparatory world economic conference in Geneva in 1932.

SAGE CHAPEL PREACHER January 7 was the Rev. Halford E. Luccock, of Yale Divinity School. January 14, the Sage Chapel pulpit will be occupied by Dr. William O. Mendenhall, president of Whittier College, Whittier, Cal.

LEHIGH VALLEY Railroad January 4 added new late evening sleeping car service from New York City to Ithaca. Every day but Sunday, sleepers and coaches now leave the Pennsylvania Station at 11:45 p.m. (Newark, 11:59), arriving at Ithaca at 9:09 a.m. Light breakfast is available on the train.

AN EXHIBITOR in the recent dog show of the Finger Lakes Kennel Club happened to meet Coach Carl G. Snavely just outside the Drill Hall door. Somewhat nervous about the fate of his pet at the hands of the judges—this being the exhibitor's first experience at showing—he asked Coach Snavely if he didn't have some gelatine in his pocket that he could give the dog before leading it into the ring, thus to assure a blue ribbon for condition and vitality. Such are the uses of fame!

HEADLINE BAND for the Junior Prom February 9, the committee has announced, will be Glen Gray and his Casa Loma Orchestra, returning to Ithaca the fourth time. His last appearance was at the Navy Day Ball in 1935. "Danceable music in the 'shuffle' rhythm" the committee says will be the Junior Prom contribution of Jan Savitt and his Tophatters. Undergraduates were recently polled as to their band preferences.

PRESIDENT DAY met with the Interfraternity Council January 7. Meeting was called, the Sun reported, to consider the "house party problem," and on this the President is said to have expressed the opinion that last year's rules, hurriedly drawn, were "rather blundering," and to have placed responsibility for proper conduct upon individual members of all houses. He is reported also to have urged that the Interfraternity Council cooperate more closely with the Student Council as an agency of student self-government in other matters than rushing rules.

ASSISTANT EDITOR of the NEWS, Margaret V. Sampson '37, was married January 1 to Ernest R. Moore, graduate of New York University and this year and last instructor in Romance Languages. Mrs. Moore is the daughter of the late Professor Martin W. Sampson, English, and Mrs. Sampson.

CHI EPSILON, Civil Engineering honor society has elected two Senior and six Junior members. The former are Edward R. Skotarczak of Schenectady and Eugene S. Thorpe of Eden; Juniors, Robert Clark of Cortland, Richard G. Davis of Arlington, Va., Howard F. Eckerlin of Lyons, Edmund B. King of Meadville, Pa., Henry W. Lansing of Cranford, N. J., and Walter B. Shaw of Yonkers.

BOOKS By Cornellians

E. B. WHITE'S ESSAYS

Quo Vadimus, or the Case for the Bicycle. By E. B. White '21. New York. Harper & Brothers. 1939. viii+219 pages. $2.00.

Some of E. B. White's best pieces from the New Yorker, together with various others, are collected here. In four major sections, "Parables and Prophecies", "Easy Essays on Hard Subjects", "Medicine and Other Occult Sciences", and "Trials of Man, Who Inherited the Earth," White portrays American humor at its best—in either brilliant satire or delightful jesting. Sometimes he gives helpful advice, as for example, "How to Tell a Major Poet," or "Getting Along with Women;" in other selections, he shows the futility of war.

EARLY NATURE STUDY

The Icelandic Physiologus. Facsimile Edition, with an Introduction by Professor Halldor Hermannsson, Scandinavian Languages and Literatures. Islandica, Vol. XXVII. Ithaca. Cornell University Press. 1938. 23 pages, 16 plates. $1.

One of the most interesting and significant developments of medieval European literature was that which we label the Physiologus. The person thus designated was the forerunner of our Nature student, but with the important difference that his object was not to clarify the mysteries of Nature, but to work out correspondences and connections between the natures of animals and plants and stones and the qualities and characters of the persons of the Trinity, of the Devil, of good and bad human beings. The goat, for example, loves the highest mountains and when he sees people in the neighborhood he can tell the difference between pilgrims and hunters. "So looks our Lord Jesus Christ upon the highest mountains: i.e., the Patriarchs, and Prophets, and all Saints." The ass, on the other hand, is a picture of the Devil.

All this was imported originally from the East. It has been traced to monkish orders in Egypt, Palestine, and Syria. Their members were interested not in finding out what Nature was—that they apparently thought they knew already—but in connecting the peculiarities which they attributed to natural objects with Christian life and symbols.

Thus it happens that ideas possibly hatched in Egypt hundreds of years before they became connected with Christianity crop out in the Icelandic Physiologus in the twelfth century A.D. These interesting "natures" were rendered into Icelandic apparently twice, since the two fragments, which together deal with nineteen animals, belong to different versions. Icelandic was apparently the only Scandinavian language into which a translation of these texts was made. Knowledge of the material came, apparently, through England.

Professor Hermannsson has done his work well. He has written an introduction of fifteen pages, has prepared a critical text (five pages), and has added colotype facsimiles of the whole (sixteen plates). He devotes about six pages of the Introduction to a useful commentary on the pictures which run through both fragments, those in the second fragment, at least, being well done.

—CLARK S. NORTHUP '93

REVOLUTIONARY WAR

Land For My Sons. By Maribelle Cormack '23 and William P. Alexander, Sp '19. Illustrated. New York. D. Appleton-Century Company. 1939. xii+311 pages. $2.00.

Maribelle Cormack and William P. Alexander have again collaborated, this time writing of the days of the Revolutionary War as it was fought in the Pennsylvania wilderness between settlers and unfriendly Indians. The action centers around young Michael Marshall of Scotch-Irish ancestry, who was among the first to seek active service when the war broke out. His ensuing experiences make interesting reading for those in their teens.

Another recent book by these two collaborators is Bruce and Marcia, published by the American Book Company. Written for youngsters from eight to twelve, it is the story of two children who, in the company of old Dr. Freudemacher, discover the out-of-doors and the beauty in the wild life surrounding them.

EILSHEMIUS '85

And He Sat Among the Ashes: A Biography of Louis M. Eilshemius ('85). By William Schack '19. Fifty-eight paintings by Eilshemius. New York. American Artists Group. 1939. xv+303 pages. $3.00.

This book about a Cornellian and by a Cornellian is thus of double interest. Schack spent three years intimately associated with Eilshemius, studying his letters, diaries, books of verse and prose, his music, and his paintings. The result is an excellent biography of a man who has proclaimed himself great because no one else would; a man who has achieved fame and success after he was too old to enjoy it. No longer ambitious or handsome, he sits all day in a wheel chair in a darkened, stifling room; a discouraged, feeble old man waiting for people to come to see him. "He hates life, he hates growth. He is tired, very tired of it all."

Concerning THE FACULTY

PROFESSOR FORREST F. HILL, PhD '30, Agricultural Economics, on leave of absence in Washington, D. C., as Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, resigned that position December 20, protesting an executive reorganization order which placed the FCA under jurisdiction of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. He will return to the University the second term. Appointed Governor of the FCA in September, 1938, Hill succeeded Professor William I. Myers '14 when Myers returned to Ithaca as head of the Department of Agricultural Economics. Few days later, H. Edward Babcock, acting chairman of the University Board of Trustees, resigned from the board of directors of the Central Bank for Cooperatives of which he had been a member since formation in 1933 of this financing organization under the FCA. Writing Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, Babcock expressed the hope that Congress would take action to "restore the Farm Credit Administration to its former independent status, and to clear the road for its ultimate control by the farmers who borrow through it." Telegrams protesting transfer of the FCA were also addressed to President Roosevelt by University Trustee Frank E. Gannett '98 and Herbert P. King '00, president of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation.

WIDESPREAD APPROVAL is reported of President Roosevelt's appointment of Myron C. Taylor '94 as his personal representative to the Vatican to further efforts "for peace and the alleviation of suffering." An Episcopalian, Trustee of the University, and donor of the Law School building, Taylor will spend much of his time in Rome.

FIRST "Gannett League for President, 1940" in New York State has been organized by a group of Republicans in Steuben County, where Frank Gannett '98, University Trustee, was born. Similar organization has been formed in Schuyler County. The movement was started during Gannett's recent Western speaking tour. As a New Year greeting, 2,500 employees of The Gannett Newspapers contributed to a fund for a bust of their employer, to be executed by Gutzon Borglum.

PROFESSOR HEINRICH RIES, Geology, Emeritus, presided at the sessions on industrial minerals of the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Columbus, Ohio. Recently he was elected an emeritus life member of the Association, and given honorary membership in the American Ceramic Society. Dr. Reis also attended meetings of the Geological Society of America and Society of Economic Geologists at Minneapolis, Minn.

"INFORMATION, PLEASE" experts in their broadcast of December 19 were "stumped" when they failed to identify birds whose song recordings were made, selected, and sent to them by Albert R. Brand, Sp '33, research associate in Ornithology. Thus the Department received $15 and a set of the Encyclopædia Britannica.

MRS. HERBERT H. WHETZEL, wife of Professor Whetzel, Plant Pathology, died suddenly in Rochester, December 25. Graduate of Hillsdale College, she was a member of Pi Beta Phi and for several years was chapter adviser at Cornell.

EDGAR A. WHITING '29, assistant director of Willard Straight Hall, is president of the Ithaca Exchange Club, for 1940. James B. Trousdale '22, assistant treasurer of the University, was elected a vice-president. Reelected to the offices of secretary and treasurer, respectively, were James E. Matthews '17, assistant to the Comptroller, and Louis E. Cook '25.

DR. VINCENT DU VIGNEAUD, professor of Biochemistry at the Medical College in New York, lectured at Harvard Medical School December 11 and 12. He spoke on "Some Studies in Stereo-Biochemistry" and "Carnosine and Anserine."

ENGINEERING, English magazine, published November 10 "Three Hundred Years of Mechanics of Materials," by Dean S. C. Hollister, Engineering. The paper was originally delivered in Cambridge, Mass., at the Fifth international Congress for Applied Mechanics.

PROFESSOR JAMES W. PAPEZ, Anatomy, gave a paper at the twentieth meeting of the Association for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City, December 20 and 21.

PROFESSOR LEONARD S. COTTRELL, Jr., Sociology, headed a discussion on "Statistics of Family Composition and Type of Household" at a joint session of the American Sociological Society and the American Statistical Association, December 27-29 in Philadelphia, Pa.

"UNCLE SAM'S CHIEF SPY-HUNTER in the Caribbean" is what The Vermont Alumnus for November calls Major Charles S. Ferrin, University of Vermont '15, formerly in charge of the Artillery unit of the ROTC at Cornell. Major Ferrin is intelligence officer of the newly created Department of Puerto Rico, with headquarters at the ancient Santo Domingo barracks in San Juan, capital of Puerto Rico. With counter-espionage as one of his chief duties, his work will probably take on greater significance with the actual construction of the new giant Army and Navy air bases there.

Concerning THE ALUMNI

Personal items and newspaper clippings about all Cornellians are earnestly solicited.

'79 BS; '09, '10 MD; '12 AB, '16 PhD; '20 WA; '33 AB, '34 AM—December 22, 1939, a plaque honoring Stanford J. Gibson '79 and commemorating his twenty-six years of service to the Norwich public schools as principal and superintendent was presented to the school district by the class of 1939. Graduating from the University, Gibson studied law in Ithaca and was admitted to practice. After being a teacher and principal of several schools, he became principal of the Norwich school in 1893; in 1899 he was appointed superintendent, and remained there until his retirement in 1919. During his years of service there, many improvements were brought about. He is the father of Edwin F. Gibson '09, Kasson S. Gibson '12, the late Gilbert S. Gibson '20, and Stanford J. Gibson '33.

'85—Mrs. Rudyard Kipling, sister of the late Charles W. Balestier '85, died at her home in Sussex, England, December 19, 1939.

'86 CE; '87—Abraham L. Hawley and Alfred S. Procter '87 are owners of the Denver Tent & Awning Co., Denver, Colo. Hawley is engaged in railroad engineering work and management in Texas and is a railroad official there.

'92 BSA—Furman L. Mulford has moved from Washington, D. C. to 804 Philadelphia Avenue, Silver Spring, Md.

'92 BL—Alfred J. Miller, cashier of the Building and Loan Association of Akron, Ohio, writes: "For the first time in my life I was laid up this summer. Was out three months with a heart attack. Very glad to say I have recovered to the extent that I am back on the job, and apparently O.K." His address is 345 Broad Boulevard Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

'94 ME—Harrison D. McFaddin, former executive committeeman of the Cornellian Council, lives at Llewellyn Park, West Orange, N. J.

'96 CE—Lynn L. Davis is an engineer with U. S. Engineers, Buffalo; lives at 32 University Avenue, Buffalo.

'97 LLB—Francis O. Affeld, Jr. married Katharine Knight, Smith '14, Christmas Day, at the home of her parents in Evanston, Ill. They will be at home at 873 President Street, Brooklyn.

'00 PhB—Lydia B. I. Jones, formerly dean of women at Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Mich., now lives in Randolph, Vt.

'00 BS—J. Bennett Nolan has been chosen by the University of Pennsylvania to be the orator of the day for a ceremony at Houston Hall, January 17, commemorating the 200th anniversary of the founding of the university. His subject is the life and character of Benjamin Franklin. Nolan is the author of books on Washington, Lafayette, Franklin, and other historical subjects; the latest one, Benjamin Franklin in Scotland and Ireland, published by the University of Pennsylvania Press.

'04—Horace D. McMullen lives at 11 Royal Avenue, Conimicut, R. I.

'04 PhD—Fred W. Foxworthy, assistant in Botany, 1901-04, was in charge of the forestry subsection at the Pacific Science Congress at Berkeley, Calif. last summer. He is retired from the Federal Malay States Service and lives in Berkeley.

'07 AB; '39—Julian A. Pollak and Mrs. Pollak have announced the marriage of their daughter, Betty, to Morton A. Rauh, November 15, in Cincinnati, Ohio. They will live at 1306 Paxton Road, Cincinnati. Mrs. Rauh is the sister of David Pollak '39.

'09—Stanley H. Flint is statistician for the Chicago By-Product Coke Co. His address is 330 North Austin Boulevard, Oak Park, Ill.

'09 ME—James W. Cox, with Iselin Jefferson Co., manufacturers of cotton goods, 90 Worth Street, New York City, has been elected president of the Metropolitan Opera Club. Formerly he had been vice-president and director.

'11 AB, '12 BS—Major Jay D. B. Lattin is on duty with the ROTC at the University of California at Berkeley, Calif. His address is 139 Parkside Drive, Berkeley.

'11—King C. Laylander, manager of operations of the Star Pointer Exploration Co., writes that a camp has now been completed at Bearmouth, Montana,

ACHESON COLLOIDS CORPORATION EXHIBIT
Pictured are Howard A. Acheson '23, president of this Port Huron (Mich.) firm, and Morris W. Reynolds '18, sales manager.

and that a first placer gold dredge was completed by November 1. The purpose is to install three more dredges in the next four years, entailing an investment of over $2,000,000. Laylander's address is Bearmouth, Mont.

'11—Edwin H. Whiting lives at 10 Hancock Avenue, Yonkers.

'11—H. Kirke Becker of Chicago, Ill., was elected Grand Annotator of Sigma Chi Fraternity at the forty-fourth Grand Chapter, in Los Angeles, Cal., last August. He is president of the Peters Machinery Co., said to be the world's largest manufacturers of automatic packaging machinery and special machines for the biscuit and cracker industry. Becker's address is 4700 North Ravenswood Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

'12—William A. Horrell is in the investment business. Address: 1305 Oak Knoll Avenue, Pasadena, Calif.

'12; '11, '12 BArch—John W. Stoddard writes that he and Carl Burger '11 spent the week-end of December 2 "duck hunting on Long Island Sound. A good time was had by all, including the ducks. Carl is doing very well as a commercial artist in New York City. Most of the posters you see on the Railway Express trucks are his handiwork." Stoddard is district manager for the fleet sales division of General Motors in New York City.

'14 PhD; '80—Oliver E. Buckley, son of the late William D. Buckley '80, has been named chairman of the Engineering Foundation, research organization of the national engineering societies. He is executive vice-president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories in New York City, and lives at 13 Fairview Terrace, Maplewood, N. J.

'14 AB—Emerson Hinchliff writes that he is spending the winter in Colebrook, Conn. "Don't know when I shall go back to Europe. Was over there last spring."

15 - 25 - 40

'15 ME—John A. Maclay has rejoined the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., Newport News, Va., as supervisor of tool rooms.

The Class of 1916 is holding a Class Dinner for those in the Metropolitan Area, on January 26 next at the Cornell Club of New York. Carl Snively will be the guest of honor and will present motion pictures of some of the outstanding games of the past season, with his own observations thereon. Hibby Ayer '15 will be on hand to keep things in rhythm and swing. Pat Irish, chairman of the dinner, expects a record attendance and fears that the Club facilities will be overtaxed. Sam Howe, general Reunion chairman, will be down from Buffalo, and many others from distant parts are expected to be on hand. George May Stevens, Collie Collins, Harry Byrne, Len Hicks and other songsters of varying talents will be there to do their share. The fee is $2 for refreshments and entertainment. It will be a "Standing Room Only" event, and reservations should be made promptly through Bub Pfeiffer, 111 Broadway, New York City, by those who plan to attend.

Following are the members of the Metropolitan Reunion Committee: Pat Irish, Bub Pfeiffer, John Toolan, Van Van Horson, Phil Wyman, George Amory, Grant Schleicher, Hal Bache, Collie Collins, Bade Badenhausen, Freddy Mullen, Eddie Aycrigg, Shep Lyon, George Stevens, Don Baldwin, Paul Sanborne, Andy Andrus, Bill Willett, Bud Fay, Gyp Tomkins, Dick Philips, Moe Hunter, Bob Dahn, Dave Freudenthal, Fred Lyford, Pat Potter, Hal Thorne, Kube H. Thomas, Ted Jamison, Bay Hunter, Gidge Crabtree, Al Frick, Russ Welles, Joe Inness, Harry Byrne, Len Hicks, Bob Wilson, Roy Gruman, Muckle Middleton, Hod Lamb, Ron Hart, Sandy Lansing.—H. F. B.

'16 ME—William S. Unger has moved to 2003 Sunshine Avenue, Johnstown, Pa.

'16 BS—Lois C. Osborn, general secretary of the YWCA in Cortland, spoke December 2 on the opportunities in social service work at the third of the vocational discussion series in Martha Van Rensselaer Hall. According to Miss Osborn, there is a general trend toward an increase in social work.

'16 BS—Wilbur S. Oles is sales agent for feed and fertilizer companies at Delhi.

'17 AB—Jacob G. Schurman, Jr., son of Jacob Gould Schurman, third President of Cornell, has been appointed by Governor Lehman as judge of the Court of Special Sessions in New York City. In 1935 Mayor LaGuardia appointed him chief city magistrate and prior to that time he had practiced law for thirteen years.

'17 MSA—Samuel A. McMillan is with the Farm Security Administration, Dallas, Tex. His address is 404 Clermont, Dallas.

'18, '19 BS—Howard B. Ortner, formerly head coach of basketball, and national secretary of Kappa Delta Rho, attended the thirty-first annual meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference at the Hotel Biltmore, New York City.

'19—Albert M. Ross works in Stamford, Conn. and lives at 312 Maple Avenue, Greenwich, Conn.

'19, '18 ME—Weston R. Reese is operating his own general insurance office in Greensboro, N. C. He is also manager of the Piedmont Pump & Well Co; lives at 322 South Edgeworth Street, Greensboro.

'20 AB—Mrs. Charles A. Holcomb (Edith A. Warren) is president of the League of Women Voters in Reading, Mass. Her address is 197 South Street, Reading.

'20—Emile T. Kennedy lives at 123 West Fourteenth Street, Port Angeles, Wash.

'22—Robert M. Ball is owner of the Robert M. Ball agency for the Standard Accident Insurance Co. at 640 Temple Avenue, Detroit, Mich. He and his wife and daughter, Nancy Ann, 11, live at 548 Harmon Road, Birmingham, Mich.

'22—Merton W. Enos is branch manager for the International Milling Co. in Albany, where he lives at 38 Fairlawn Avenue.

'23 BS, '28 MF—Francis I. Righter is with the Institute of Forest Genetics, Placerville, Calif.

'23—Glen L. Logan for three years has been assistant to the general sales manager of the Packard Motor Car Co., Detroit, Mich. He lives at 8100 East Jefferson Avenue, Detroit.

'24—Jacob Reck is practicing law in Washington, D. C., with offices in the National Press Building.

'24 AB—Vivian E. Simrell lives at 3010 Wisconsin Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

'24 BS, '25 MS—William D. McMillan is director of research of the GLF in Ithaca, where he lives on Inlet Road.

'24 MD—Dr. Herbert C. Brokenshire is director of the Davao Mission Hospital, Davao, Mindanao, Philippine Islands, and is United States Quarantine Officer for the Port of Davao.

'25, '26 BS—Seth Jackson has been made Rhode Island State director of the Northeastern Timber Salvage Administration of the U. S. Forest Service. He lives at 7 Pierce Place, Edgewood, R. I.

'25 BS—Clifford E. Brew was transferred September 1 from the Phelps branch of the GLF to the Ithaca office. He lives on the Auburn Road.

'26, '28 CE—Norman E. Sanders is junior engineer with U. S. Engineers in Buffalo. He lives at Krehbeil Road, Clarence Center.

'26 BS—Albert R. Blanchard is county agricultural agent for Tioga County, with offices in Owego. Recently he has become interested in a woodlot marketing cooperative, which he helped to organize as one of the first in the country. He plans to buy a woodlot and sell timber himself.

'27 BS—Mary M. Leaming served as general chairman of the state meeting of the New Jersey Home Economics Association October 21. She has been with the New Jersey Home Economics Extension Service for some time; address 1981 Pennington Road, Trenton, N. J.

'27, '28 AB; '98 AB—Floyd W. Mundy, Jr., with James H. Oliphant & Co., member of the New York Stock Exchange, 61 Broadway, New York City, has moved to 208 Beverly Road, Scarsdale. He is the son of Floyd W. Mundy '98.

'27 ME; '19—Richard H. Mollenberg is chief engineer of the Mollenberg-Betz Machine Co., Buffalo. His brother, Harold J. Mollenberg '19, is vice-president of the concern.

'27 BS; '97 LLB; '22 BChem—Bertha F. Reifschneider, daughter of the late Felix Reifschneider, Jr. '97, writes that she and her brother, Felix E. Reifschneider '22, live at 28 East Thirty-first Street, New York City.

'27; '98 BSA, '04 MSA; '95, '98 PhB—Robert B. Stocking, son of the late Professor William A. Stocking, former head of the Dairy Department, and Mrs. Stocking (Harriet M. Bliss) '95, is manager of the Hotel Whitehall, Broadway and 100th Street, New York City.

'28 AB—Brooks Atkinson in the New York Times for December 9 praises Sidney Kingsley's (Kirshner '28) play, The World We Make, based on Millen Brand's novel, The Outward Room. He writes: "As author and director, Mr. Kingsley has written a number of vigorous and racy scenes that convey the noisy sociability of life in a cold-water rookery . . . he writes these sketches of character and incident with fresh enjoyment, endowing his people with the exuberance of human beings living the kind of life they have mastered . . . The World We Make is a deeply moving play with considerable modern significance . . . something worth cherishing as the chronicle of an individual grappling with the realities of modern life . . ."

'28 MME—Life for December 11 contains a picture of a steel-mill derrick in Chungking, China, designed and built by Shen-How Fong, MME '28, assistant manager of the mill. It is 1,000 miles inland, and 120,000 tons of machinery were carried "to Chungking by river, junk, mulepack, and coolie trackers, before the invading Japanese." Life considers this "probably the most herculean feat of modern times" and adds: "Without such industrial production, there would be no Chinese troops in the field."

'28 MF—Ernest L. Kolbe is associate silviculturist with the U. S. Forest Service, Pacific Northwest Forest Experiment Station, Portland, Ore. He lives at 1811 N. W. Couch Street, Portland.

'28 CE—Willard Schultz is assistant engineer with U. S. Engineers, Buffalo, where he lives at 206 Dartmouth Avenue.

'29 CE—Edwin T. Herbert, junior engineer in the Department of Public Works, Pittsfield, Mass., reports the birth of a son, Gary Thomas Herbert, August 10. The address is 176 Newell Street, Pittsfield.

'29 PhD—Maurice J. Murray is assistant professor of chemistry at Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, Ill. Prior to that, he had been head of the department of chemistry at Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Va. He is a member of several scientific societies and co-author of a textbook, Introductory Qualitative Analysis.

'29 Grad—Sarah Kerr, formerly demonstration agent for Tompkins County, gave a lecture to the Home Bureau women in Ithaca, discussing her work in Hawaii as home demonstration agent and her trip around the world. She is now agent in Herkimer County.

'29 PhD—William T. James is the father of a daughter, born November 25. His address is 211 Upland Road, Ithaca.

'30 ME—James L. Paxton, vice-president of Paxton-Mitchell, railroad supplies, Omaha, Neb., writes: "See you in June for our Tenth."

'30, '31 AB—Howard O. Aigeltinger, co-pilot with American Air Lines on the Miami-New York run, can be reached in care of the Lines in Miami, Fla. He is starting a chain letter to all the members of his Class that he knows, asking them each to write ten Classmates and tell them about the big Tenth Reunion.

'30 CE—Captain Hans W. Holmer is at 1108 East Kansas Street, Fort Peck, Mont.

'30 BS—Myron M. Fuerst, Dutchess county draft-horse breeder and farmer at Pine Plains, entered five purebred Percheron horses in the Fortieth International Livestock Exposition and Horse Show in Chicago, Ill., December 2-9. He won first prize for a three-year-old mare.

'31 EE; '27 AB, '28 AM—William E. Brainard and Mrs. Brainard (Eleanor Holston) '27 have a son, born November 30, in Cleveland, Ohio. Their address is 3585 Fairmount Boulevard, Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

'31 AB—Mrs. Harry Horowitz (Ruth H. Levy) writes: "This summer, Mr. Horowitz and my little boy, Peter, and I attended the Institute of Euthenics at Vassar College. It is a six weeks course designed to foster the art and science of good living, the betterment of human relationships, household technology, personal appearance, arts and crafts, rhythms, and sports . . . It was one of the most exquisite and salutary experiences I have ever had, including even those four beautiful years at Cornell." Mrs. Horowitz lives with her husband and two children, Peter and Elizabeth, at 18 Kempshall Place, Elizabeth, N. J.

'32 AB—Henriette Liebman is doing statistical work on a government project in Philadelphia, Pa.

'32—Edward R. Collins is district representative for the American Carribean Line; lives at Kongens Gade, St. Thomas. His mailing address is Box 567, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

'32, '33 BS—Ray Smith, Jr. is manager of Hotel Pfister at 424 East Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis. He lives at 1209 East Kensington Boulevard, Milwaukee.

'32 DVM—Dr. Harold L. Smead is a veterinarian living at 53 Bliss Street, Springfield, Mass.

'32 EE, '30 AB—Albert R. Hodges, patent attorney with Farnsworth Television and Radio Corp., Fort Wayne, Ind., is the author of a recently published booklet on radio broadcast receivers for the Better Buymanship series of bulletins published by the Household Finance Corp. of Chicago, Ill. A member of the Institute of Radio Engineers, his address is 521 Oakdale Drive, Fort Wayne.

'33 Grad—Mary E. Cameron is a new member of the faculty at Elmira College, Elmira. She teaches history.

'33 AB; '31 BS—Anthony P. Morse is teaching at the University of California. He and Mrs. Morse (Mary R. Evans) '31 live at 2727 Woolsey Street, Berkeley, Calif.

'33 MCE—Loyal M. Nerdahl is at Lake Mohonk Mountain House, Mohonk Lake.

'34 BS—Russell B. Hill married Dorothy M. Dollard of Brockport, July 26. They live in Honeoye Falls.

'34 BS—William E. Chisler, district supervisor for Philip Morris & Co., Ltd., in the Omaha, Neb. area, lives at the Omaha Athletic Club.

'34 BS in AE—Harold G. Olson is salesman for Bethlehem Steel Co., working in New York City; lives at 927 Elm Avenue, River Edge, N. J.

'34 AB—Paul C. Meister married Vaughn Cousins, April 20, 1939. He received the MD degree from Western Reserve medical school in 1938 and is now at St. Vincent Charity Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Meister also attended Western Reserve. They live at 2085 Cornell Road, Cleveland.

'35 ME; '03 ME(EE); '39 ME—Harry G. Bartlett, son of Harry G. Bartlett '03, and George P. West '39 are working for Martin Bombers in Baltimore, Md.

'35 BChem, '38 PhD—Channing C. Nelson is designing engineer in the process engineering department of the Standard Oil Development Co., Elizabeth, N. J. He lives at 323 West Jersey Street, Elizabeth.

'35, '36 BS—Charles G. Ashe married Marjorie L. Mathes December 2 in the chapel of the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School. Mrs. Ashe was graduated from the University of Rochester. They live at 77 East Boulevard, Rochester.

'35 BS; '09; '06 MD—Margaret R. Robinson, daughter of Edward W. Robinson '09 and Mrs. Robinson (Anna E. Ray) '06, and teacher of home economics in Baldwin High School, writes: "This is my third year in my home town high school. I've started working toward my Master's degree at Columbia. It seems that 'All Round the World Cornell' is true, for I have no difficulty meeting alumni wherever I seem to be." Her address is 37 Oakmere Drive, Baldwin.

'35 CE—Herbert P. Orland is assistant office engineer on the Holyoke dike construction, Connecticut River flood control division. His address is United States Engineer Office, P. O. Box 749, Holyoke, Mass.

'36 AB—Mary P. Tillinghast is in charge of technical and patent files in the research department of the Carborundum Co., Niagara Falls. She lives at 824 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo.

'36 AB—Lewraine T. Magee was married November 18 in York, Pa., to Henry M. Buckingham, Dickinson College. They live at 510 Main Street, South Fork, Pa.

'36 AB—Donald R. Hassell, with The Herald Statesman, Larkin Plaza, Yonkers, lives at 307 Boulevard, Scarsdale.

'36 MSE—Ray W. Lynch is city engineer of Pawhuska, Okla.

'36—John G. Whitman has been transferred from the Hagerstown, Md., offices of Johns-Manville Corp. to the Baltimore, Md., offices.

'36—Edward T. Read is milk inspector for the city of Niagara Falls. Address: 448 Memorial Parkway, Niagara Falls.

'36 CE—Jerome W. Luippold writes that he is working in the office of the estimating department, U. S. Engineers, in Buffalo. "The work is not strictly of an engineering nature, but borders upon it most of the time. My official title is inspector (dredging). I hope to have it changed soon." He lives at 33 Shirley Avenue, Buffalo.

'36 BS—November 24, Mildred V. Reynolds was married to F. Varian Davis in Turin. Richard E. Reynolds '36 and Mrs. Reynolds (Lois G. Adams) '36 were attendants. They live on Main Street, Constableville, where Mrs. Davis teaches home economics in the Constableville Central School.

'36 BS; '35 AM—John L. Babcock, Jr. and Mrs. Babcock (Ruth Burden), AM

'35, live at 1785 South West Thirteenth Street, Apartment 9, Miami, Fla. Babcock is chief steward of the Eastern division of Pan American Airways.

'36 AB—Lawrence J. Morgenbesser lives in Glasgow, Scotland, where his address is in care of Kelvingate Private Hotel, 5 Park Grove Terrace.

'36 ME—Charles W. Lockhart is with the Buffalo Forge Company, 798 Pershing Square Building, Los Angeles, Calif.

'36 BS—Allen E. Bailey married Catherine M. Paris at Broadalbin, July 1. They live in Greenville where Bailey teaches vocational agriculture in the high school.

'37 AB—Wilbur M. Dixon, a third-year student at the Cornell Medical College in New York, lives at 141 East Seventy-first Street, New York City.

'37—Julia A. Dobler is working at Gimbel Bros. in New York City. She is engaged to Frank Machek of East Islip.

'37 MCE—Milton T. Hill, junior sanitary engineer with the New York State Department of Health, has a paper entitled "Digestion Studies on Paper Pulp" issued as number seven of the Reprint Series of the Cornell University Engineering Experiment Station.

'37 BChem, '38 Chem E—Rolf H. Hemmerich, technical assistant in the Shell Oil Co., Wood River Refinery, writes: "I am getting along very well since beginning to work in July, 1938, and like my work very much. I would greatly appreciate hearing from Classmates should they happen to come to this section of the country." His address is 520 East Fourth Street, Alton, Ill.

'37 BS—Mrs. Charles D. Markham (Janet M. Benjamin) has a daughter, Joan Terry Markham, born July 2. The address is 37-14 Ninety-second Street, Jackson Heights.

'37, '39 BS in AE—Martin W. Sampson, Jr., son of the late Professor Martin W. Sampson, English, is working in the Chevrolet assembly plant in Buffalo, where he lives at 25 Dodge Street.

'37—Robert W. Oneill married Inez A. Smith of Syracuse, November 22. They live in Syracuse.

'37 BChem, '38 Chem E—John H. Pendergrass is with Procter & Gamble Co.; lives at 6267 Savannah Avenue, College Hill, Cincinnati, Ohio.

'37 BS in AE—Wilbur H. Peter, Jr. is a sales engineer for The Electric Controller & Manufacturing Co. His address is 1539 Oliver Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

'38 BS—Edward P. Bradley is with the Farm Security Administration; recently transferred from Norwich to Oneida, where he has offices in the City Hall and lives at 346 Elizabeth Street.

'38 AB—Henry Hofheimer, Jr., second-year student at the Yale Law School, writes: "Completed second summer as manager of Hotel Sagamore, Long Lake, and appreciated seeing the number of Cornellians who found it possible to drop in and see me there."

'38 MS—Joseph P. Nadeau and his bride spent several days in Ithaca recently; then returned to their home at St. Hyacinth, Can. Nadeau is in the dairy branch, Department of Agriculture, Quebec, Can.

'38 AB; '09 CE; '39—William C. Kruse, Class secretary, has left the Atlantic Refining Company and is now in the sales training course of the General Steel Castings Co., Eddystone, Pa. He is the son of Otto V. Kruse '09; is engaged to Gladys E. Frankle '39; lives in St. Davids, Pa.

'38 AB—Marian G. Kadel is a fellow in psychology at Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

'38 AB—Samuel S. Stahl is in the sales promotion department of Gillette Safety Razor Co., Boston, Mass.

'38 AB—Ruth D. Jachans finished a course at Katharine Gibbs last March and since then has been with Root, Clark, Buchner & Ballantine, law firm in New York City. Her address is 103 Oak Tree Place, Leonia, N. J.

'38 BChem—Lewis B. Lindemuth, Jr. is doing metallurgical work with Broken Hill Proprietaries Co., Inc., Newcastle, N.S.W., Australia.

'39 BS; '13 BChem—Donald R. Huckle, son of Clarence Huckle '13, married Margaret Baker at North Rose, August 19. They live in Ripley where Huckle teaches vocational agriculture in the high school.

'39 AB—Carl C. Joys III is with the A & P Co., Milwaukee, Wis. He lives at 2560 North Summit Avenue, Milwaukee.

'39 AB; '06 AB, '08 LLB; '06 AB—Charles M. Landmesser, son of Charles F. Landmesser '06 and Mrs. Landmesser (Jane B. Cheney) '06, is a Sophomore in the Medical College in New York. His address is 46 East Seventy-first Street, New York City.

'39 BS—Ruth E. Landers has a position in the home service department of the Republic Light, Heat, and Power Co. in their Batavia office. Her address is 16 Lewis Avenue, Batavia.

'39 EE—William P. Lentz, in the training course of the camera works of the Eastman Kodak Co., writes that he is living at 331 Seneca Parkway, Rochester, with five graduates in the class of '39 from Illinois, Purdue, MIT, and Penn State, all working for the Kodak Company.

'39 BS—Milton E. Merz married Ethel Harbison, August 19, at Clarence. Merz teaches vocational agriculture in the high school at Jeffersonville, where they live.

'41—Charles T. Moran is a milk tester for Livingston County; lives at Avon.

"David Burpee"

A New Kind of
GIANT ZINNIAS

Tremendous flowers
5 in. across, very deep,
lasting a week in water.
New informal, gracefully curled and twisted petals. Long 18-in. stems. Well-branched
3-ft. plants. Many new colors, exquisitely beautiful and har-

SEED SUPPLY SCARCE
Order Now

monious—rich pastels like apricot, chamois, buff, terra-cot-ta, rose, peach, etc. Postpaid:
Pkt. (40 seeds) 25c; 200 Seeds $1.

Burpee's
Seeds Grow

Burpee's Seed Catalog Free.
W. Atlee Burpee Co., 674 Burpee Bldg., Philadelphia

CORNELL IN PICTURES

"The finest book of Cornell pictures ever published; superb in selection, arrangement, and reproduction . . . a real thrill."

Only $1.00 postpaid

Thirty familiar Campus buildings and scenes—air views—gorges—waterfalls. In decorative portfolio with plastic binding—each one suitable for framing.

Write name and address on margin, clip this ad and mail with dollar bill to

CORNELL ALUMNI NEWS
3 East Ave. ITHACA, N. Y.

FIND YOUR FRIENDS!

● To correspond with that Cornell friend whose address you do not know, you have only to write your letter, put it in a sealed and stamped envelope with his or her full name written plainly on the outside, enclose that envelope in another bearing your return address, and mail to

LETTERS EXCHANGE
Cornell Alumni News
ITHACA, N. Y.

▼
We will forward your enclosure to the addressee if a recent address can be found, if not will return it to you with a report. This service is free to our subscribers.

Casradilla PREPARATORY SCHOOL

at Ithaca, New York

SECOND SEMESTER BEGINS JANUARY 30

We stress responsibility, self-reliance, and training for work on the college level. Any course may be begun and and finished in the second semester.

C. M. DOYLE '02,
HEADMASTER

TOWERING MANSIONS

Designed and Dedicated to Heighten the Joy of Living

LINCOLN HOTEL

● Live like a king when you visit New York. Stay at Manhattan's Mighty Hotel Lincoln, superb in every detail of location,
luxury and hospitality.

NEW YORK CITY

44th TO 45th STS. AT EIGHTH AVE.

1400 ROOMS
Each With Bath Shower And Cabinet Radio

HOME OF
THE FAMOUS
BLUE ROOM
Outstanding
Music And Entertainment

Ownership Management
MARIA KRAMER
President
John L. Horgan, Gen. Mgr.
HOTEL EDISON
Same Management

Please mention the NEWS

CORNELL HOSTS

A Guide to Comfortable Hotels and Restaurants

Where Cornellians and Their Friends Will Find a Hearty Cornell Welcome

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

STEPHEN GIRARD HOTEL

CHESTNUT ST. WEST OF 20TH
PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.

Nearest downtown Hotel to Penna. 30th St. and B. & O. Stations.

WILLIAM H. HARNED '35 . . . Manager

WASHINGTON, D. C.

CORNELL HEADQUARTERS IN WASHINGTON

THE LEE HOUSE

Fifteenth & L Streets, N.W.

KENNETH W. BAKER '29, Manager

Cleves Cafeteria

1715 G Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C.

CARMEN M. JOHNSON '22, - Manager
HELEN J. ROGERS '38, - Asst. Manager

SOUTH

VIRGINIA BEACH
The CAVALIER
CAVALIER BEACH CLUB
CAVALIER COUNTRY CLUB
VIRGINIA BEACH, VA.
ROLAND EATON '27, Managing Dir.
GOLF - FISHING - TENNIS - RIDING

Stouffer's

N. TOWNSEND ALLISON	'28	Pittsburgh
ERNEST TERWILLIGER	'28	Detroit
B. F. COPP	'29	Cleveland
R. W. STEINBERG	'29	New York
L. W. MAXSON	'30	New York
H. GLENN HERB	'31	New York
W. C. BLANKINSHIP	'31	Cleveland
J. W. GAINES	'32	Cleveland
J. WHEELER	'38	New York
BRUCE TIFFANY	'39	New York

NEW YORK AND VICINITY

HOTEL
Ambassador
John P. Masterson, '33, Asst. Manager
PARK AVE. - 51st TO 52nd STS. - NEW YORK

CORNELLIANS

will be particularly welcome at

The Stratford Arms Hotel

117 WEST 70TH STREET
TRafalgar 7-9400 NEW YORK
Five Minutes From Times Square
(Write for reservations)
ROBERT C. TRIER, Jr. '32, Resident Manager

HOTEL WHITEHALL

Broadway at 100th St.

DIRECTION:
AMERICAN HOTEL CORPORATION

ROBERT B. STOCKING '27 - Mgr.
JOHN M. BATTEN '37 - Asst. Mgr.

ITHACA

DINE AT

GILLETTE'S CAFETERIA

On College Avenue

Where Georgia's Dog Used to Be

Air Conditioned the Year 'Round

CARL J. GILLETTE '28, Propr.

CENTRAL NEW YORK

DRUMLINS

At Syracuse, N.Y.

OPEN ALL YEAR AROUND
CAFETERIA DINING ROOM TAP ROOM
GOLF TENNIS WINTER SPORTS
L. WIARD '30 R. S. BURLINGAME '05
Restaurant Manager Owner

ALBANY

Wagar's Coffee Shop

Western Avenue at Quail Street on Route 20
ALBANY, N.Y.

Managed by - - Bertha H. Wood

NEW ENGLAND

Stop at the...

HOTEL ELTON

WATERBURY, CONN.

"A New England Landmark"
Bud Jennings '25, Proprietor

Hemphill, Noyes & Co.

Members New York Stock Exchange

15 Broad Street . . . New York

INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Jansen Noyes '10 Stanton Griffis '10
L. M. Blancke '15 Willard I. Emerson '19

BRANCH OFFICES

Albany, Chicago, Harrisburg, Indianapolis,
Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Trenton,
Washington

The Bill of Rights Charter of American Liberty

It deserves a place in every real American home, office and school. You can now get copies for yourself and your friends. Beautifully printed in blue, red and black on vellum paper, 12 x 16 neatly framed. Send $1.00 each for as many copies as you want, to

THE CAYUGA PRESS

113 E. Green St., Ithaca, N. Y.

THE MERCERSBURG ACADEMY

Prepares for entrance to all Colleges and Universities. Especially successful in preparing boys for College Entrance Board Examinations. Located in the picturesque Cumberland Valley at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains. A large faculty from the leading colleges and universities of the country give thorough instruction and aim to inspire in every pupil the lofty ideals of thorough scholarship, broad attainments, sound judgment and Christian manliness.

BOYD EDWARDS, D.D., LL.D.
Headmaster, Mercersburg, Pa.